Class Guideline and Cancellations Policy

- Late registrations are welcome with space available and instructor's permission.
- Full payment must accompany registration.
- Payment may be made by cash, check, or money order. We currently can not accept credit cards.
- The Artisan Center reserves the right to cancel any class with insufficient enrollment. Fees are 100% refundable if cancelled by the center.
- 75% of class fees are refunded if withdrawal notice is received seven days or more prior to the first class meeting.
- No refunds will be made if withdrawal notice is received less than seven days prior to the first class meeting.
- The Artisan Center does not issue credit vouchers for class withdrawals.

The undersigned student is participating in the class or classes sponsored by the Pike County Artisan Center and hereby acknowledges that she/he understands the Class Guidelines and Cancellations Policy listed above. All students agree to abide by additional class regulations outlined by their instructors and Artisan Center Supervisors. It is further acknowledged by the student that the Artisan Center and their officers, members, employees and agents, accept no responsibility or liability whatsoever for any injury, loss or damage to student's personal equipment or artwork.

Photographers are often on the premises during classes and special events to capture images for the Pike County Artisan Center Archives and for use in publicity materials. By registering for a class, I hereby grant the irrevocable right to the use the photos taken by that Artisan Center staff in all media and in any and all manners including composite or segmented representation for the preparation of works which may incorporate my image, and hold harmless the Pike County Artisan Center and the staff photographer against any and all liability arising herein.
